Minister De Gucht condemns Mumbai attacks
Brussels, 27th of November 2008
Minister of Foreign affairs Karel De Gucht unreservedly condemns the terrorist attacks led in Mumbai against innocent civilians on this 26th and 27th November. The Belgian Minister wishes to convey its deepest condolences to those families who have lost one or more of their members. Minister Karel De Gucht hopes that the authors responsible for these horrible killings and destruction will be brought to justice. He also wishes to express his solidarity with the Indian authorities and the peoples of India who are so unjustly confronted with the effects of the international terrorism. Minister Karel De Gucht is reaffirming the determination of Belgium to remain committed to join its efforts to the international community in its fight against terrorism.
