Treasury certificate auction calendar until the end of 2020

As part of the measures announced on March 30th in response to the Covid-19 crisis, the Belgian Debt Agency planned to issue an extra medium-term line in the first Treasury Certificate auction of each even month.

In order to optimize its cash position during the following months, the Debt Agency will now return to the initial auction scheme.

As a result, only one short-term Treasury Certificate will be auctioned in the first auction of October and December.
